2. [REDACTED] reported that the Career Service Committee has requested formal draft of an evaluation report form by 5 January 1952. In other words, that committee has indicated that our progress has not been up to expected schedule. (Evidently, the accomplishments reported to the Committee seem an inadequate return for the man hours spent. However, that report did not list the hours spent in haggling over terminology and in considering various phases of the program later rejected as irrelevant to our objectives and therefore not to be listed in the periodic report as accomplishments. [REDACTED])

3. Discussion of Performance Report:

Discussion was continued on the proposal for a basic employee evaluation form as submitted by [REDACTED]. Attached is a new copy including all revisions made in this and the 9th meetings.
